TIMES OF OUR LIVES

Good morning yesterday
You wake up and time has slipped away
And suddenly it's hard to find
All the times we've left behind
Remember, do you remember.....

The laughter and the tears
The shadows of misty yesteryears
The good times and the bad we've seen,
And all others in between
Remember, will you remember....

Reach back for the joy and the sorrow,
Put them away in your mind,
For the past is a time from which to borrow
To spend when we get to tomorrow

Here comes the rising sun,
The seasons have passed one by one.
So gather those moments while you may,
Collect the dreams you dream today
And remember, these are the times of our lives.

To the Class of 1977:

You have reached "A Time of Your Life" when secondary education is an accomplished fact. A time to assume the responsibilities of a job, post secondary education, or enlistment in a branch of the service.

The past years have been a time of preparation; your family, schools, community, church, and peers have contributed to your intellectual and emotional development.

Whether your growth continues as you enter into a much larger world will depend on your selection of friends, of opportunities, and goals. You are embarking on a time of your life when you will make many more unassisted decisions. Success and happiness may be affected by your decisions. Don't let haste, that is quick, snap decisions, be the cause of serious disappointments. Plan and prepare constantly toward some goal or objective that will bring you success and happiness in life.

Sincerely,

John A. Murray
Principal

DEDICATION

Mrs. Phillips

Math help, ideas for rallies, and school spirit are just a few of the things Mrs. Phillips has given our class. She has contributed to many of the memorable times and we will never forget her kindness. This is why we dedicate our book to her.

Mr. Stanton

We also dedicate this book to Mr. Stanton in order to thank him for all the time he has given us, as soccer coach and yearbook advisor. He has helped us through good and bad times alike, and we want him to know that we appreciate everything he has done.

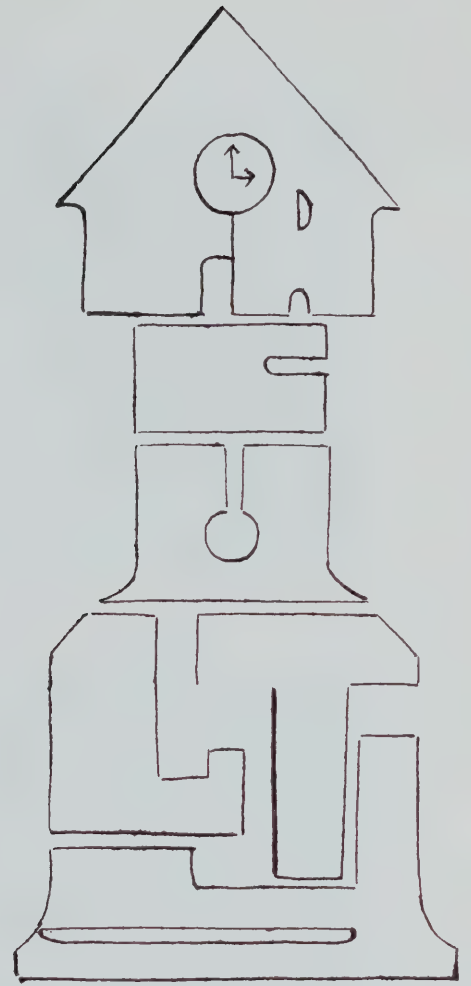

Of all the "times of our lives", our years at Abington High School will be remembered by many as being the best. We, the editors, have endeavored to bring together the most memorable of these times.

We are grateful to everyone who contributed to the production of this book. We would especially like to thank Mr. Stanton for his help and understanding.

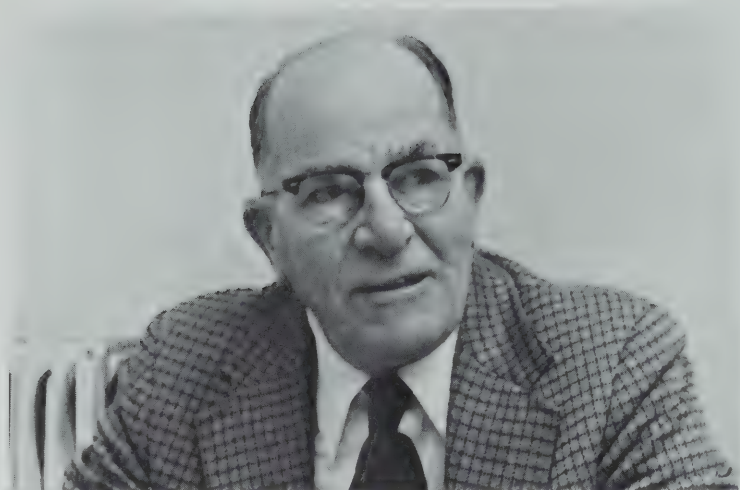

Hopefully, the good and bad times that we have experienced together have enriched our lives. If, upon reading this book, you recall these times, we will have fulfilled our purpose.

CLASS

FRESHMAN YEAR

Big move up the boulevard, we all couldn't wait
A little nervous and frightened to discover our fate.
We knew we were tough, but only we knew,
The others above us, they hadn't a clue.
With officers like Tom, Kev, Janice, and Jeanne,
We felt we were finally making the scene.
The kids from St. Bridgets', they came in the fall,
By the end of the year, we knew them all.
At our first rally, we didn't know what to do,
As the votes were counted, we were number two!
The Frolio was our number one hangout that year
We had our first tastes of munchies and beer.
We got our jackets at the beginning of summer
It was too hot to wear them, and that was a bummer.
We left for our outing one sunny June day,
At Paragon Park where we wanted to stay.
Later in June we left without tears,
It was finally the end of our Freshman year!

SOPHOMORE YEAR

We returned from vacation with not even a sigh
We were no longer the babies of Abington High.
Our officers were Rick, Donna, Jeanne, and Janice
With them as our leaders we couldn't miss!
We ordered our rings of silver and gold,
But some were quite different, not like we were told.
The second floor was now our domain,
For rallies we adorned it, and not all so plain!
To numerous dances we all said we'd go
But some never came and did not even know!
The Winter Carnival was new to us all
Those who attended all had a ball.
Our basketball team finished in first place
No doubt about it, they were tops in that race.
The year went by fast, as we watched ourselves grow
Into the adults of the future (for most that was so).
We realized how good the past two years had been,
And we prepared ourselves to become upperclassmen.

HISTORY

JUNIOR YEAR

It was our junior year-third floor at last!
Being underclassmen was all in our past.
Led by Sue, Janet, Janice, and Alynne,
We knew that this rally, the trophy we'd win.
The senior's tears could not ruin that day
We soon set our sights to the prom in May.
We left prom committees with hands colored blue,
We knew it'd be worth it with the mural in view.
Christa was Queen that memorable night,
Mrs. Powers wondered why the punch didn't taste right.
A year full of good times we'll never forget,
Fund raising activities kept us out of debt.
Candy, a cake sale, and a car wash too,
We still had so many more things to do!
And also came BurgerTime installed down the street,
At last we had something edible to eat!
Soon the year ended, we'd had so much fun,
Next year would be better; we'd be number one!

SENIOR YEAR

We are finally seniors, and now really cool
We're the best class at Abington High School!
We've came a long way, and it has been rough
Four years of high school-that sure is enough!
Ricky, Alynne, Janice, and John
They'll lead us till June, when we'll be gone.
The Christmas Bazaar was not quite a success
Even though we did try to do our best.
Car washes, dances, and co-ed gym
Everything equal for her and for him.
We wondered if we would last the first semester
On many report cards, which were surprisingly better.
Superlatives, Miss Abington, and Miss D.A.R.
We wrote so many ballots, and choosing was hard.
Receptions and graduation are coming so fast,
Before we know it, they'll be in our past.
But soon we must separate, we must depart
With love for our school, and thanks in our hearts.

The time has come to say good-bye
 To the friends that A.H.S. has brought,
 To the teachers who helped us help ourselves,
 To the fun-filled days we had together,
 To the prom, the parties, the secret things,
 But we'll remember as each day ends
 The way we were in our yester years,
 For we take our mem'ries wherever we go
 And meet the future ahead of us.

CLASS WILL

1. We leave Mr. D. Campbell an oil can and spare transistors for his bionic jaw and hand.
2. We leave Chuck Reynolds encyclopedias to proof-read in his spare time.
3. We leave a hope and a prayer that there is no "dry spell" like last summer.
4. We thank Mr. Byron for helping us to realize that we, too, are "im-POT-tant, significant others.
5. We leave with Diane; even though she was never here.
6. Sue leaves thanks to Mark for getting her little brother drunk at her cookout.
7. We leave our Duxbury Beach Party unattended.
8. We leave the football team better than last year; with best wishes for next year.
9. We leave the "Golden Glove Award" to Tammy and Diana.
10. We leave Mrs. Reilly extra file cabinets for all her study guides.
11. The varsity cheerleaders leave thanks to Mrs. Phillips for all her help.
12. We leave "Our SPIRIT trophy" available, even if no one else deserves it.
13. We leave Miss MacDonald a mood ring for her many changing moods.
14. We leave Mr. Kingdon as one of the few shop teachers to last more than one year.
15. We leave Karen H., Debbie C., and Moe R., discussing the latest in Vogue.
16. We leave Denise and Tom best wishes, and hope that we all get invitations.
17. We leave Mr. Divoll an academy award for his performance of "Hamlet."
18. We leave, remembering Prom Committee meetings with multi-colored hands; assembly lines; asking "Is this right?"; and finding wires in our carpets for months afterwards.
19. We leave still trying to sell all our Reese's Cups.
20. We leave Debbie somewhere...with someone...in Quebec.
21. We leave Chuck LoGiudice with a never-ending supply of red socks.
22. We leave Katie a blind date with Stevie Wonder.
23. We leave Jean Whalen a "Hi, how are you" and 2,465 packs of gum to replace all the ones she has given us.
24. We leave all our coats, gum, lollipops, and brushes to Mrs. Reardon.
25. We leave Mr. Garris a free lesson on "How to Smile."
26. We leave Candy and Nancy an all-expenses paid trip to the Boston Public Library.
27. We leave Mr. Stanton another Pele for his soccer team.
28. We leave Christa, Mike, and Karen saying, "Oh, the deadline was yesterday?"
29. We leave still planning our sophomore and junior class outings.
30. We leave our prom with tears in our eyes, while the punch went down the drain.
31. We leave Sue Hayes leaving a little earlier than the rest of us.
32. We leave still waiting for J. Geils.
33. We leave Abington High well-publicized.
34. We leave the platform, the Frolio, the sewerbeds, Loganberry, the oil tanks, Park Ave, Chestnut St., and behind the police station as disaster areas.
35. We leave "Frate," Janice, Jeannie, Bobby, and Mrs. Powers some spinach, so they can grow up to be big and strong.
36. We leave Bonnie the "Photographer of the Year" award.
37. We leave Mr. Kelliher a coat.
38. We leave "Poe", "Nelly", and "Caba" a Shick Trac II razor.

39. We leave the mad dog dead, and half the town taking credit for shooting it.
40. We leave Mr. Murray still not knowing the words to the fourth stanza, while Mr. Paster makes up some of his own.
41. We leave Mr. Gervais thanks for making us the drivers we are today.
42. We leave Alynne, never again mounting the top of the pyramid.
43. We leave thanks to Audrey for letting us destroy her house.
44. We leave a certain few boys in the paddy wagon and a certain few girls in the cruiser and many thanks to Mr. Bowden from all of us.
45. We leave with many "happy" memories of our Thanksgiving rally.
46. We leave our scabies to the underclassmen, with hopes that they'll pass them on to future generations.
47. We leave Roz as a true American.
48. We leave Wolfie some polish for her field hockey stick.
49. The band and drill team leave Laurie some cotton to muffle her whistle.
50. We leave the days of streaking, saddle shoes, and puka shells behind us.
51. We leave Craig Gurney finally "getting whipped."
52. We leave the Board of Health with something to do, other than picking on A.H. S.
53. We leave Mose, Chuck, John, and Bob "high" on the roof of Camp Clark Rifle Range.
54. We leave other classmen going to our prom party.
55. We leave hoping the reception is better than the prom.
56. We remember Park Ave; before, after, and during school.
57. We leave with red eyes...from colds and allergies, of course.
58. We leave not knowing whether Jocks are Freaks or Freaks are Jocks.
59. We leave Jacqui Fay a pair of matching socks.
60. We leave with co-ed gym classes, but regretting no co-ed locker rooms.
61. We leave Rory and Al as friends of the class forever.
62. We leave the Freshmen paint remover and a dictionary for the wall outside the gym
63. We thank Mr. Woods for helping to hang the "Seniors Welcome You" sign at 6 A.M.
64. We leave Mr. Robinson giving one B, and many C's, D's, and E's.
65. The senior girls leave Peter Stone, Mr. McGrath, and Mr. Kent with tears in their eyes and pains in their hearts.
66. We leave thanks to Kim for writing a poem to last year's class and not writing one this year.
67. We leave as the first class ever to elect a female president.
68. We leave flicking our Bics during the Grand March.
69. We leave Jan saying, "No, I'm not related to Mr. Murray."
70. We thank Mrs. Rennie for helping us with our S.A.T.'s.
71. We leave Abington with a "Boston Common" of its own.
72. We leave Mr. S. Smith and the Student Council a little richer from the quarters that the coke machine stole.
73. Deb, Karen, Donna, and Jeannie leave Peter Umbrianna in Mrs. Millet's math class thinking he's the "cat's meow."
74. We leave Burger Time going out of business--maybe.
75. We leave Wally hanging from the rafters before the prom.
76. We leave the underclassmen, especially the juniors, much luck forever.
77. Finally, we leave Abington High with fond memories and thanks to all the faculty for making these past four years an unforgettable time of our lives.
